

sound academy

Sunday Oct 17 2.30 St Hilda's, Katoomba
"Lovely on the Water"

Celia Craig, oboe/cor anglais, Catalin Ungureanu, Airena Nakamura, violins, Virginia Comerford, viola and Christopher Lockhart Smith, cello

"Music is life..."

<http://www.soundacademy.org>

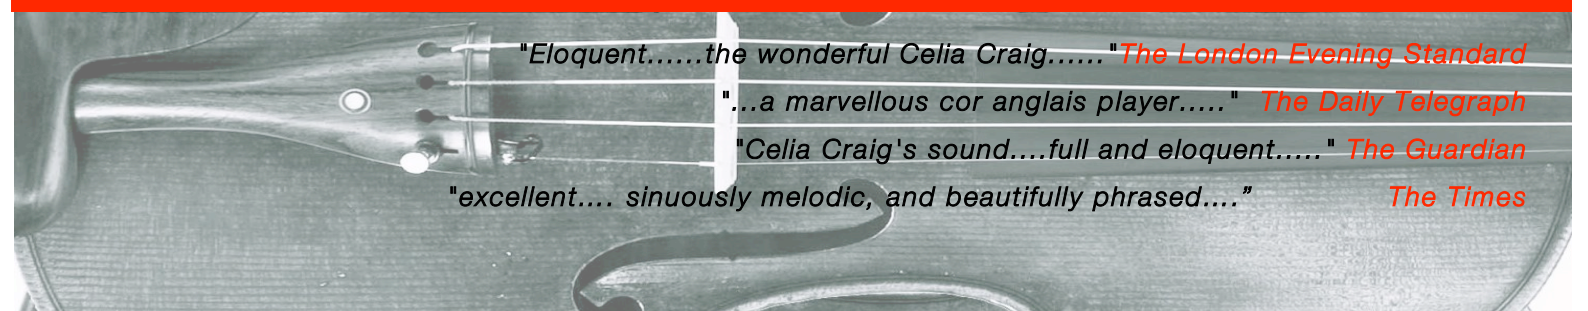

"...such wonderful musicians...with the experience to perform not only with flair as individuals but with discipline in a group...all their concerts will be unique and memorable events..."

Mark Wigglesworth, conductor

Uniting some of Australia's finest players, Sound Academy present immaculate chamber music, blending a luscious string sound with haunting oboe and cor anglais. "Lovely on the Water" showcases beautiful English music- the relaxing harmony of Vaughan Williams and his contemporaries Bax, Britten and Finzi. Prepare to be swept away... Passionate in performance, the group's commitment to their art and engagement with their audience create a spellbinding experience. Sound Academy's philosophy: "music is life..."

Experience the power of music...

Entry $15 adults, $5 children. Doors open 2pm. For further details <http://www.sthildas.net>
68 Katoomba St Katoomba 4782 1608. (No bookings taken - tickets on door only.)

"Eloquent.....the wonderful Celia Craig....." The London Evening Standard

"...a marvellous cor anglais player....." The Daily Telegraph

"Celia Craig's sound....full and eloquent....." The Guardian

"excellent.... sinuously melodic, and beautifully phrased...." The Times

visit our website:

<http://www.soundacademy.org>

Celia Craig	oboe/cor anglais
Catalin Ungureanu	violin
Airena Nakamura	violin
Virginia Comerford	viola
Christopher Lockhart Smith	cello

sound academy

